Bioficer Abilities

Famous and Faction Admirals may take additional Abilities from the following table when building your lists. Each Famous and Faction Admiral will state the amount of additional Abilities they may take. You can only take each Ability once per list.

Cost	Effect
1AP	Good Fight, We Should Do It More Often: At the end of the Activation Phase, choose one friendly Group and one enemy Group of the same or greater Tonnage within Scan range of the friendly Group. Starting with the friendly Group, Both Groups attack with a single Weapon System as if on the General Quarters Order, following the sequence in 7.3 Attack until 7.3.5 Inflict Damage. Damage from these attacks is then inflicted simultaneously.
1AP	Esoteric Ammunition: When you assign a Group's weapons to a target, each of the attacking Group's Weapon Systems with "Barb" in their name gain Bloom-1, Flash-1, and Critical-1 for that attack.
1AP	Limited Sensor Profile: When an enemy Group assigns weapons to a friendly Group, if that enemy Group's Lead Ship is in the Front or Rear Arc of the closest Ship to it in the friendly Group, reduce the Lock of the weapons targeting the friendly Group by 1.
2AP	Precision Strike: At the start of a friendly Group's activation, choose one weapon on a Ship in that Group. That weapon gains Crippling until the end of the Group's activation. Weapons with the Close Action special rule are unaffected.
1AP	Prismatic Surprise: Once per round, when you assign targets to a weapon with "Prism" in its name, other friendly Ships with the same name as the attacking Ship and that are within 12" of the target may contribute to the attack. For each Ship that contributes, the attacking "Prism" weapon increases its Attack by 1. If this causes the Attack of the attacking weapon to double or more, that weapon gains Penetrator for that attack.
*AP	Unsportsmanlike Behaviour: At the start of the Activation Phase, you may pay up to 3AP. If you do, roll twice that many dice and declare the unmodified results to your opponent. Until the end of the Activation Phase, after your opponent rolls to hit, for Crippling Effects, and for Explosion Effects, you may replace one of the dice in that roll with one of your declared dice, as if using an Ability. Any unused dice are lost at the end of the Activation Phase.

Bioficer Admirals

Bioficer Ardent

Admiral Level 1 – 25 pts

Cost	Effect
*	This Admiral may take 1 additional Abilty from the Bioficer Abilities Table.
2AP	Backpedal: At the start of a friendly Group's activation, pick any friendly Group. You may move each Ship in that Group up to 3" directly backwards, then turn any Ship that moved up to 22 degrees (the size of the FN or RN arc).

Bioficer Accumulator

Admiral Level 3 – 65 pts

Cost	Effect
*	This Admiral may take 1 additional Abilty from the Bioficer Abilities Table.
2AP	Gravitic Manoeuvring: When a friendly Group is given a Weapons Free or Max Thrust Order, it may turn as if it was on General Quarters.
1AP	Kinetic Deconstruction: When a friendly Group makes an attack with any number of weapons with "Decon" in its name, those weapons change their Type to Kinetic until the end of its activation.

Bioficer Deployable Features

PTS	Type	ES	KS	Hull	Special
15	Genitor Tower	4+	4+	4	-

This Deployable Feature may be purchased for your fleet when you build your list. This Deployable Feature must be assigned to a Ship with the Porter special rule as if it were a Ship with the Payload S-1 special rule. When you deploy this Deployable Feature, it follows the rules for deploying Features.

When one or more enemy Battalions on this Dropsite and its Features are removed for any reason, place 2 friendly Battalions on this Dropsite regardless of the number of Battalions removed or Genitor Towers on this Dropsite. If these Battalions are gained through Battalion Combat, they are placed after Battalion Combat.

When this Feature is destroyed, it contributes its points to the Kill Points of the opposing player that destroyed it.

PTS	Type	ES	KS	Hull	Special
12	Gravitational Arc	4+	4+	5	-

When an enemy Group ends its move within 6" of this Feature's dropsite and in atmosphere, that Group's player rolls a dice. On a 1-3, the Group is moved into Orbit and cannot move into Atmosphere again this round. It suffers the effects of moving through any scenery it is placed in. This takes place before that Group attacks or launches assets. If all Ships in the Group have Orbital Decay tokens, they are not affected.

A Ship carrying this Feature gains Vectored while it is carrying this Feature.

PTS	Type	ES	KS	Hull	Special
16	Ghost Orb Tower	4+	4+	5	-

When you activate this Feature, remove 1 enemy Battalion from each Feature on this Dropsite, then remove 1 enemy Battalion from anywhere on this Dropsite.

When a Ship carrying this Feature attacks, you may have one of its weapons gain Status for that attack.

Ghost Orb: Effects caused by this weapon's Status rule are removed at the start of next round's End Phase instead of this round's End Phase.

One Upsmanship

If this Admiral is your highest level Admiral, whenever your opponent uses an Ability, roll a dice. On a 4+, you gain 1AP.

Cost	Effect
*	This Admiral may take 1 additional Abilty from the Bioficer Abilities Table.
2AP	Emergency Reattachment Protocol - When an enemy would destroy one of your Payload Ships, it is not destroyed and is instead reattached to a valid Porter Ship within 6".

Godray Lightvice

This weapon's Bombardment profile may target Dropsites within scan range as if it did not have the Close Action special rule.
If either of this weapon's profiles target a Dropsite containing a friendly Bioficer Deployable Feature, friendly Battalions assigned to that Feature ignore Collateral Damage due to this weapon.

Cost	Effect
*	This Admiral may take 1 additional Ability from the Bioficer Abilities Table.
1AP	Vice Lightly - When you assign targets to a weapon with "Lightvice" in its name, that weapon ignores its Focused rule for that attack.

Load	Launch	Special
Fighters & Bombers	5	-
Boarding Pods	3	-

Cost	Effect
*	This Admiral may take 2 additional Abilties from the Bioficer Abilities Table.
2AP	Overwatch - When you activate this Ship on General Quarters, you may choose to forgo attacking with this Ship. If you do, this Ship goes on Overwatch until the end of the round or until it declares the use of Overwatch. At the end of any enemy Group's activation, if that Group moved through this Ship's Front arc and was in weapons range while doing so, you may declare the use of Overwatch against that Group. When you use Overwatch, this Ship immediately makes an Attack as if on General Quarters against the enemy Group, even if it is out of arc and weapon range.

Giga Lightvice

When determining potential targets for this weapon, you may use an unmodifiable Scan of 7" instead of this Ship's Scan value.

High Velocity Boarding Pods

This Ship's Boarding Pods may be used against targets up to 6" away.

Only ship of the class: The Melter

Nicknamed by lucky survivors, The Melter became a feared lone wolf among Biofícer raiding parties. Its favoured victims were larger foes who didn't feel as threatened by a vessel of its modest size as they should. No other ship was known in this configuration, so the Admiralty assigned its guiding Intelligence the designation Anode. This individual was entirely unsubtle and clearly had access to superior technology over its peers.

It featured an enhanced superstructure and power matrix, upping it to heavy destroyer tonnage. All this supported a single, prow weapons system: the Themator Cage. Quite different in form to regular thermators, this was as devastating as most battleship primary armaments, albeit only at close range. This led to the vessel's destruction at the hands of the UCMS Gaugamela over Olympus in early 2679. However, reports of an identical vessel and characteristic behaviours followed weeks later, forcing the Admiralty to conclude that this Intelligence had successfully transferred out and potentially has several of these unusual vessels at its disposal.

Summoning

When you activate a Wing within 2" of this Ship, instead of moving them normally, you may remove them from the table, then place them anywhere within 18" of this Ship. Wings placed this way suffer the effects of any scenery they are placed on but ignore intervening scenery. Wings placed this way may form and divide into Wings as if they had moved normally. Wings placed this way cannot be the target of your Abilities until the end of the round (other players may target them with Abilities as normal).

Only ship of the class: The Ring Ship

Reports of an apparently unique, lone Bioficer vessel have increased in recent months. UCMF crews have nicknamed it The Ring Ship, and the Admiralty have assigned the Intelligence that controls it the designation Aeon. Bioficer teleportation rings are known, but this one dominates the superstructure of a heavy cruiser and is larger than anything seen besides space stations, and this one is mobile. From these rings, Bioficer launch assets appear from elsewhere. They can also jump nearby launch assets limited distances. Both factors make them quite different from Shaltari teleporters and potentially more advanced.

This ship also features an unusual prow armament for the Bioficers: a rack of physical missiles. These are essentially miniaturised versions of Bioficer torpedoes, so while they are damaging on impact, the real horror is when the warhead's genitor cores churn out nightmares into the living spaces of the target. These distinctive systems imply that certain Bioficer Intelligences have a high degree of autonomy and personal resources to develop killing machines that suit their individual, twisted tastes.

One of the first nightmarish Bioficer battleships encountered, the Binary is built around a colossal, spinal-mounted Grand Bisector. This weapon is already infamous for neatly slicing cruisers in half with a single, silent discharge. Like most Bioficer battleships, it can be upgraded with Genitor Torpedoes and can carry a single Supercell into battle.

The Brutal class battleship is built around the terrifying Giga-Winnower, a weapon of awesome, indiscriminate lethality. When unleashed at full force, it projects coruscating tsunamis of molecular deconstructive power, reducing multiple targets to random chunks. Like all Winnowers, its weakness is its short range, making extreme aggression an enjoyed necessity for the intelligences that direct this massive ship

The Bastion class battleship is built around the massive Gravitic Hyperlance. This weapon projects a thin tunnel of massively undulating gravity, pulling and shaking a cylinder of hull to pieces while arresting the target for further abuse, should it survive at all. A Thermitor battery augments this ship's already awesome destructive power.

The Blackbird is one of the new enemy's most awesome, maxed-out vessels. The extreme and frankly insulting effects of the Grand Bisector are already, regrettably, well known, but once augmented with multiple other weapons this vessel becomes a top-tier threat. Its Scythes, Thermator, and boarding pods are bad enough, plus it can be further upgraded with Genitor Torpedoes.

Much like the Blackbird is an up-gunned version of the Binary, the Bishop super battleship shares the primary armaments of the Brutal class. It sacrifices some thrust to add a Thermitor and boarding pods while retaining the option to add Genitor Torpedoes and a Supercell. Fully equipped and upgraded, this is a terrifying opponent at close quarters.

Consistent with the enemy's other super battleships, the Binder is effectively an up-gunned, slower derivative of the Bastion class. Its devastating, mixed armament is a primary threat to any vessel. Like other Bioficer super battleships, it features a greater offensive crew compliment to fill its boarding pods, making boarding actions against this leviathan a foolhardy endeavour.

The Zodiac is the most frequently encountered Bioficer dreadnoughts, although all sightings are thankfully rare, so far. These hellish leviathans pack an array of ship-killing weapons, starting with a pair of Decon Annihilators. Moving downwards, a secondary hardpoint will accept any battleship primary armament as a secondary aboard this monster. Towards the stern is typically a quad battery of Scythes. Lastly, a spinal flight deck is open to the void, ready to unleash waves of lethal bombers or nimble fighters. Nothing less than another dreadnought can hope to survive an encounter with this monster.

In 2679, the Zenith class Bioficer dreadnought is the most dreaded close-action vessel in known space. In several early engagements with admirals who didn't appreciate what they were facing, a single example chewed through scores of capital ships and emerged victorious. The Zenith's primary prow armament is the Giga Lightvice. This weapon's fanged maw emits a biblical level of atomic destruction capable of rending a battleship in seconds. Like its cousin the Zodiac, the Zenith's prow-ventral hardpoint will accept any battleship primary armament, although on a dreadnought this is merely secondary. Tertiary armament is typically a quad array of Thermators—another weapon which does its killing up close. Completing the Zenith's offensive suite is a substantial, exposed spinal flight deck.
